INDEX TO ADVERTISERS

Souvenir Card Collectors Society
Journal Advertising Rates	24	Journal Back Issues Available	24
Membership Information	C4	A Visual Reference , Third Ed.	2

Membership information and Dues (S.C.C.S.) should be sent to the Treasurer. Requests for back issues and information concerning this Journal, including submission of articles and advertisements should be addressed to the Editor. Thanks!

On the inside front and back covers, I illustrate two examples of bank note engraving art, which were apparently used as advertising samples. I understand that Steve Patrick and, returning member, John Parker, did a presentation(s) on this subject at the Society meeting at the 2014 F.U.N. show.

In my efforts to establish a Visual Reference, to help one identify the items in our hobby, I have decided to add some already existing items. In lieu of a new edition to the publication listed below, I am planning on including them here in the Journal, which is where it all started anyway.

So I start off with the cards produced for the International Banknote Society (IBNS) on pages 16-19, unfortunately not in color, which would be Section 17 in the VR, as noted in the footers. (One is on the cover.) I follow it with the cards produced by the IBNS Midwest Chapter and issued at the Chicago Paper Money Show (CPMX), pp 16-18..

That would make what I am showing here Section 19: the cards produced for NAPEX (I did not know I would be getting an auction consignment which includes many of these cards.)

On page 5 is an update of the MB and B cards. Mike and the Bureau seem to be the only sources left for new intaglio material. I'd like to hope that these new "money" cards for this year's BEP program might bring back some of the folks we lost when they were forced to stop printing the beautiful work of the past.

Regretably, there are still sixteen(16) members who have not yet renewed their dues for this year.

I will renew the Society in the American Numismatic Association (ANA), in a new "Club Choice" category, which costs only $15/yr. and allows for a free bourse table and meeting room at their shows. There is no discount for ANA membership, but at that price, it's not necessary!

The National Philatelic Exhibitions of Washington, D.C., Incorporated (NAPEX) has been held on an annual basis in the Washington, DC area since 1950, with the exception of 2006, when an International Exhibition was held in the city itself.

Since 1973, the show has been held under the auspices of the American Philatelic Society (APS) as part of their World Series of Philately (WPS) stamp exhibits.

The sponsoring organization issued their first souvenir card in 1987. It, and the following eleven cards, was offset printed. Their twelfth card, issued in 1999, was intaglio printed, as have been all the cards issued since then. Their printer is Mike Bean.

Souvenir Cards: A Visual Reference, Third Edition, 2012, includes the following cards:

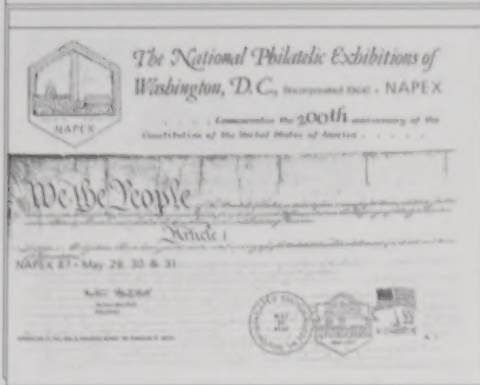

1. Bureau of Engraving and Printing (B), 28 pp.;
2. Postal Service (PS), 8 pp.;
3. Semi-Official (SO), 16 pp.;
4. American Stamp Dealers Association (ASDA), 28 pp.;
5. ASDA Chapters (C, CB), 6 pp.;
6. Souvenir Card Collectors Society (N), 4 pp.;
7. Washington Chapter One (W), 8 pp.;
8. Metro Chapter Four (M), 6 pp.;
9. Forerunner (F), 12 pp.;
10. Federal Managers Association (FM), 6 pp.;
11. United Nations (UN), 6 pp.;
12. American Numismatic Association (ANA), 4 pp.;
13. American Philatelic Society (APS), 6 pp.;
14. Michael Bean (MB), 8 pp.;
15. Lee Quast (Q), 6 pp.;
16. Fish & Wildlife (BD, FD, ND & RD), 12 pp..

There are a total of 170 pages, plus 4 pages of ads and a membership application form. It is three-hole punched and comes in a flexible binder. This edition, with 20 new/revised pages, updates the B, N, W, MB and Q sections of the Second Edition.

Members may purchase copies for $15.00, plus $3.25 "Media Mail", $5.15 "Priority Mail", per copy. There is no limit on the number of copies. New pages only: $3.50 ppd. Non-members price is $20.00, plus postage; update $5 ppd. Members/dealers may purchase five (5) or more copies for $12.00 each, plus shipping costs.

Checks should be made out to "S.C.C.S.", and sent to:

The International Bank Note Society (IBNS) was founded in 1961. It operates as a non-profit educational organization and in furtherance of such purpose, its objectives are to promote, stimulate, and advance the study and knowledge of worldwide banknotes and paper currencies and all matters related thereto along educational, scientific and historical lines. Currently the IBNS has over 2,000 members in more than 90 countries. The Society's website is theIBNS.org. There are currently 21 Chapters, with 4 of them in the United States: Los Angeles, Midwest, New York, and Southern California.

Starting in 1985, with the 15th European Money Congress, in London, England, private security printing firms provided engraved "ticket" souvenirs of the successive events. The first being Bradley Wilkinson with a colorful engraved sheet with scroll work and a portrait of Sir Issac Newton (1642-1727). The same design was used the following year, but in different colors. These were printed on one side only, except the 1986 has a notation of the back: "In March 1986 the De La Rue Group acquired Bradbury Wilkinson from its then parent company, American Bank Note. It is believed that the increased resources of De La Rue will prove to be in the long term interest of Bradbury Wilkinson and their customers." BW produced another copy of the Newton piece in 1987 and in 1992, again using different colors.

In 1988, there were two events, the European Paper Money Bourse in Maastricht, The Netherlands, and the Money Congress in London. The Swedish firm AB Tumba Bruk, owned, since its inception in 1755, by Sveriges Riksbank (Bank of Sweden), produced a large sheet with a portrait of Fredrik Henrik af Chapman (1721-1808), scientist, naval officer, and ship builder, who is considered the first naval architect, for the Maastricht show.

Thomas De La Rue, for the 18th Congress, printed an engraved note featuring Sir William Caxton (1422-1491), and some people working a printing press.

The 3rd Bourse featured a Harrisons' note with a portrait of Isambard Kingdom Brunel (1806-1859), an engineer who designed railways, bridges, wharfs and ships. This is printed both sides, and was used again for the 4th Bourse.

For the 21st Congress, La Rue produced a portrait of English composer, Ralph Vaughn Williams (1872-1958). The following year's Bourse featured a card produced by a Czechoslovakia security printer featuring a portrait of Max Svabinsky (1873-1962), a Czech painter, graphic artist, and educator.

A Hungarian firm produced a sample note in two different colors for the 1993 Bourse. I have not been able to identify the portrait (Lajos Kossuth, 1802-1894?). That year's Congress featured a "note" by the English printer Walsall, with a portrait of John Aspinall, founder of the holding company which owns the printer, that was founded in 1966 to concentrate on postage stamp production.

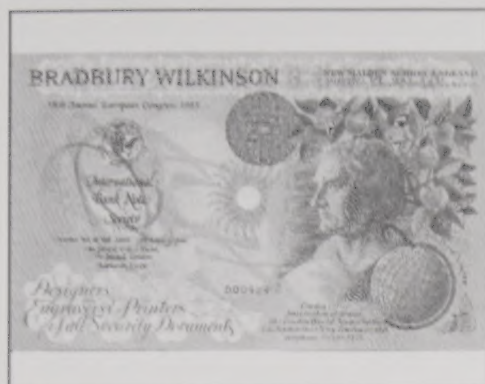

La Rue was back in 1994 with a beautiful piece featuring Christopher Columbus. Another English bank note printer, Debden, owned by La Rue, produced two items featuring Lord Nelson (1758-1805) and the battle at Trafalgar, one in blue, one in green, for the 1995 Congress.

La Rue (1793-1866) appears on one side of the items produced for 1996 and 1997. Richard Rogers's Lloyds of London(1986) complex and Sir Christopher Wren (1632-1723), British architect of St. Paul's Cathedral and other buildings, marked the piece issued for the 1998 Fair.

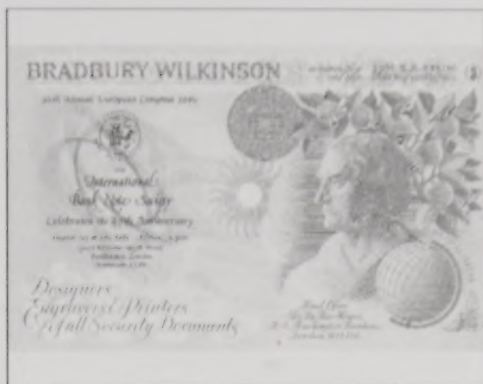

La Rue did a colorful note for the IBNS 40th anniversary, which was apparently distributed to members.

The Bourse show continues, but is now referred to as "PaperMoneyFair - Maastricht", even though it is now held in Valkenburg (about 10km away—it got too large for the former city). The Congress is now the "World Paper Money Fair, London." I do not know if the security printers have continued their sample pieces.

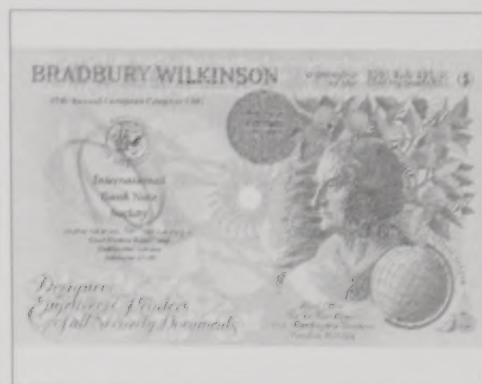

There have been some "test" notes printed, at or about the same time as the shows, but they remain unidentified and undated. I include some of them here.

The Smithsonian National Postal Museum has graciously provided us with copies of the souvenir card that is given to visitors to the new William H. Gross Stamp Gallery. We should have enough for all active members. To obtain one, please send a check or money order for $3.00 made out to "Lyle Boardman" and send it to him at 3916 Wyldwood Road, Austin, TX 78739-3005. An address label would be appreciated. For now, just one per member. The card (below) is 6" x 4.25", with a blue border. The engraved center is in black.

WANTED! ARTICLES, ILLUSTRATIONS, NEWS, INFORMATION!

I NEED YOUR INPUT for publication in this Journal. Send legible copy and clear (unfolded, please) photocopies, or text with scans (300 dpi minimum) of interesting or unusual items for reproduction. Originals are also welcome, I will return them if requested. Please bear in mind that the "working area" on a page is 6.75" wide by 9.25" high in order to maintain borders and "footer" information. S.C.C.S. AUCTION NO. 28: PRICES REALIZED William Kriebel (27)

This auction brought out eight bidders and 43 lots were sold for a total of $779.00. Two lots were withdrawn (wd) because they misdescribed.

I was surprised that there weren't more bidders. It may have been the too close to the holidays or another sign of our current economy. In any event, most bidders got the material that they bid on. There were few multiple bids and, again, tie bids go to the first received.

According to USPS Notice 123: "Pieces that are rigid...pay parcel prices." It doesn't always happen at my post office, some clerks don't know the rules!

AUCTION MATERIAL WANTED!

I trust we all have duplicate material or, perhaps, some items that are no longer wanted/needed in our collections. Why not put them in the auction? It helps your fellow collectors and provides you with funds for other acquisitions! We don't sell "junk" or damaged material, unless so specified. All you need to do is describe what you are offering and set your minimum values. I do the rest. Contact the Auctioneer, BEFORE you send anything! Thanks!

(above) Lot No. 004 in the current auction. It is multi-colored and reproduces the six stamps issued at the same time. I have never learned the whole story about what happened to this card's distribution. It was rumored, shortly after when it was supposed to be released, that Spanish authorities confiscated the cards at the show, but I have no idea why that would be. I do know that I had ordered several copies from the USPS and managed somehow to get one (this is not it!), with no explanation of the balance of the order. It is/was the last card to be issued by the USPS. It is quite rare and rarely offered in the marketplace!

RULES:

1. Only souvenir cards, intaglio-printed material, or related items are acceptable for consignment. Interested sellers should contact the auctioneer with any questions BEFORE sending any material. The fastest contact is by e-mail;

kriebewv@drexel.edu

2. Consignors are responsible for adequately describing their lots, including S.C.C.S. numbers and their minimum bids. Lots must be of a minimum $5 value.

3. Consignors will pay the postage to ship their lots and postage/insurance for return of unsold material. There is NO consignment fee, however, the S.C.C.S. will retain 10% of the selling price as a commission fee. Care shall be taken to protect any material submitted, but the auctioneer and the S.C.C.S. assumes NO liability and the consignor(s) should verify and/or provide their own insurance coverage.

4. Lots will be sold to the highest bidder. In the case of tie bids, the first bid received shall be awarded the lot. Bids below the "minimum" listed are NOT accepted. Bid in $1.00 increments only, i.e., NOT "cents." There is NO "buyer's premium".

5. Successful bidders will pay the postage, insurance and packaging for their lots. There is NO buyer's fee, but NO lots will be shipped until the notice for same is paid in full. Payment is expected within ten (10) days of notice. Late payment may result in exclusion from future bidding. Checks should be made out to the auctioneer NOT the S.C.C.S.

6. Returns are acceptable within ten days of receipt of shipment. Please specify the reason for the return (damage, mis-attribution, etc.) Mistakes on the bidder's part are NOT sufficient reason for return.

7. Bids and/or questions may be e-mailed—the quickest way—regular mail, or carrier.

AUCTION MATERIAL WANTED!

I trust we all have duplicate material or, perhaps, some items that are no longer wanted / needed in our collections. Why not put them in the auction? It helps your fellow collectors and provides you with funds for other acquisitions! We don't sell "junk" or damaged material, unless so specified. All you need to do is describe what you are offering and set your minimum values. I do the rest. Contact the Auctioneer. BEFOREHAND! Thanks!

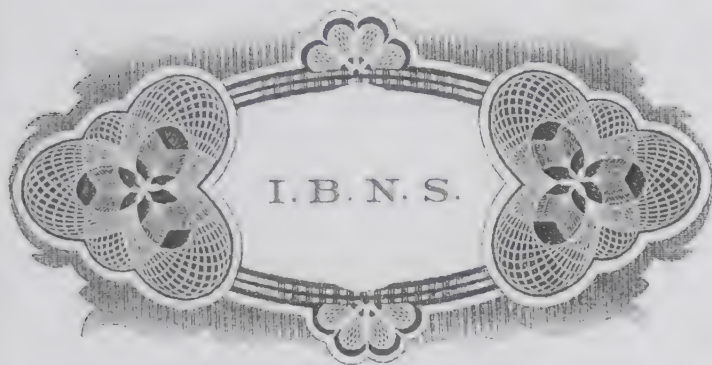

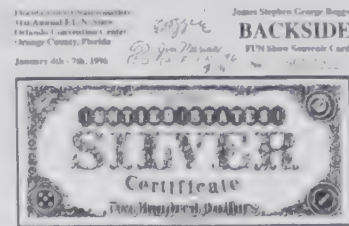

Ron Betz (34) wrote and asked why I had not given S.C.C.S. numbers to the BEP cards produced, starting in 2004, in honor of Veterans Day, and wondered if any had been produced since 2009. I replied that I did not believe it was appropriate since the cards were not available to the general public, on a par with the "Honey Bee" card, and that I had no idea about their current plans. The only cards I have seen, and they were illustrated in this Journal (see SCJ 29:1 pp. 8-11 & 32:3 pp. 3-4). I do not have any of them.

Ron contacted the BEP and was advised that cards were issued through last year, and "were only issued to BEP employees." Therefore, they are only available on the secondary market.

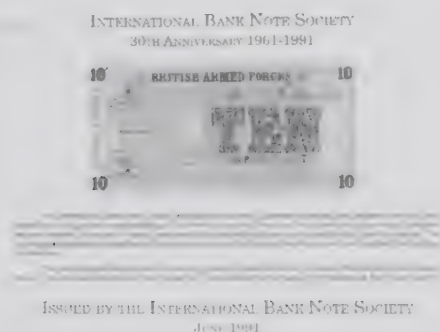

A non-member inquired about the J.S.G. Boggs card issued at the FUN show in 1995, and what did it sell for initially as he was curious having just bought one. The card was illustrated in the First Quarter issue of 1995 (SCJ 15:1). Mr. Boggs (b. 1955) hand draws images of modified U.S. paper money as "art" and not in any attempt to counterfeit it. Nevertheless, he has been in trouble with the Treasury Department, had much of his work confiscated and, to my knowledge, has been unsuccessful in attempting to get it back. I do not know how he produced more than one copy of the card in question. He apparently also did at least two cards for the following year FUN show (reduced, below).

The Midwest Chapter of the International Bank Note Society was established in June 1975. Its monthly meetings are held in Milwaukee, WI.

The Chapter has issued souvenir cards at the Chicago Paper Money Exposition (CPMX) since 1995. The cards (11"x8.5") are printed and include their engraved logo (left) and an actual bank note attached to the card, more recently in a plastic sleeve. The cards were initially printed in quantities of 200 (except for 1B, only 8). In 2011, the quantity drop to 100, and in 2013, only 50 were printed.

The two cards (below) were issued before the current series was initiated.

WE HAD F.U.N.!

Steve Patrick

FUN 2014 was a success with participation by the SCCS. Mike Bean produced two private cards, one for sale at two for $5.00 in the FUN color of orange. The other was free distributed by lottery with 100 copies. The going price for purchase was $20 to those who didn't win a free card. On Saturday afternoon, SCCS vice president Steve Patrick gave a PowerPoint presentation of salesmen samples from security banknote printers both U.S. and Great Britain. The examples come from the collection of John Parker who participated by commenting on cost, acquisition, and source of such incredibly beautiful intaglio examples.

The society table was in the back of the room with other society tables but near those of Lee Quast and (l. to r.) John Parker. The FUN show provides lots of activity besides coins and paper money. There are exhibits, Abraham Lincoln, panning for gold, minting coins from ingot to stamping, and examples of rarities from the ANA collection in Colorado.

John Denune, a former member of the Souvenir Card Collectors Society, also promotes cards through his leadership in the Christmas Seal and Charity Stamp Society (CS&CSS). At the August 2013, APS Stamp Show in Milwaukee, WI, he sold an eagle card done by Mike Bean at the show. It comes in three colors green, blue, and brown. The card also shows four varieties of the 1913 Christmas seal, one of which was only recently discovered.

I created a first day souvenir card from the green shade. In the top right are the four Flags of All Season that were introduced in a first day program on August 8 at the show's opening. In the top left is a first day cancel for the Made in America sheetlet of 12 that had its first day in Washington D.C., but a special Milwaukee Station cancel was available at the show. At the bottom is a plate number strip of five of the reissued bobcat coil on the second day of the show.

Cards are available from John Denune Philatelist at www.christmasseals.net.

[Some previously issued cards printed by Mike for the CS&CSS are included in the auction in this issue (See p. 15). Ed.]

Research tends to be an avocation in itself and scouting out information on one topic typically offers a fork leading down another path. In the course of writing an article comparing portraits from souvenir cards and memorial books (SCJ 33:1), I obtained two very intriguing publications that had not been previously reported to my knowledge. These would not be considered official memorial books, but they contain numerous intaglio portraits from the BEP.

Rather than using the Government Printing Office, producer of official memorial books, these two books were printed privately – which is why I was surprised to discover the wealth of Bureau engravings they contained. I believe they were essentially vanity publications, assembling their authors' various prominent eulogies delivered to Congress. Both are simply entitled "Memorial Addresses."

The first book was issued in 1875 by Henry B. Anthony, a Rhode Island senator, and published by Sidney S. Rider of Providence, RI. Anthony had a background in journalism, and was the editor of the Providence Journal for more than a decade until being elected Governor. He went on to serve in the U.S. Senate from 1859 to 1884, when he died in office.

The book is an unassuming paperback with a tan cardboard cover; it is only 52 pages long, but contains six engravings – five of them by the BEP. The portraits include Senator Charles Sumner (which appears on B203), General Nathanael Greene, Treasury Secretary William Fessenden, Senator Stephen Douglas, and Senator William A. Buckingham. The Buckingham portrait was engraved by George Perrine, however, this is one of the few non-BEP portraits that also appears in the official memorial book.

The frontispiece was clearly engraved specifically for this book. But like all the other engravings it does not have a BEP imprint, though the vignette of the Capitol can be traced to the Bureau. A slightly different version of the vignette appears on a series of special tax stamps, first printed by the BEP in 1873. Perhaps because this book was not a government document, the BEP decided not to include its name.

LUXEMBOURG SOUVENIR CARD

Steve Patrick

This Luxembourg souvenir card is a numbered souvenir (almost 5" X 6") from a 1940 stamp exposition that celebrated 50 years of the Grand Duke of Luxembourg's Union of Stamp Collectors.

The stamps (Scott B98 – 100) were issued December 20, 1939, in a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the reign of Grand Duchess Charlotte and her marriage to Prince Felix. Also pictured is Prince Jean.

I won this card on eBay for less than $12.00 with shipping. What drew me to the card was the engraved stamps and the date of the exhibit March 17, 1940. This falls after the start of WW II in Europe but during the time of sitzkrieg, the "sit down war" just before Hitler unleashed his panzers on France and the Benelux countries. Life went on till the war engulfed them.
